A Safe Place....continued from the April newsletter

Last month I wrote that the Lutheran Urban Ministry is committed to ensuring that all who attend are entering into a place of safety, physical and emotional nourishment, spiritual care and fellowship. Approximately 190 people: men, women, and children/youth from babies to teenagers attend the Urban, and usually 25% are elders over the age of 65. Often, three generations are sitting together for a meal.

The Urban is committed to keeping a safe and protective environment for all and that includes banning anyone with unacceptable behaviour. There is a lot of vulnerability among those attending. Physical and/or mental health disabilities, addictions, chronic illness, grief, loss, trauma, housing insecurity, poverty, and for some, homelessness, are some examples of daily struggles.

- Besides a Wednesday and Thursday evening meal at 7:00 p.m., every Sunday, lunch is provided at 2:15 p.m. after the Urban worship service. The two long rows of tables encourage people to sit beside someone they don't know and create a family gathering atmosphere.
- Every Wednesday the Men's Group meets for lunch and fellowship from 1:30-3:30, including a sharing circle during lunch every other Wednesday. Between 15 and 20 men between the ages of 25 and 77 have become friends and welcome newcomers into their big square of four banquet tables. Some men are on the quiet side but soon feel comfortable and at home in the group.
- Every Wednesday, the Women's Sharing Circle, 15-30 women, meet from 4:30-5:30 p.m. at the same setup of tables for coffee/tea, dessert and lots of discussion on a myriad of topics. 15 to 20 women, between the ages of 20 and 83
- Every Thursday from 5:45-6:45 p.m., 18 – 24 men and women gather in a large circle of chairs for our Co-ed Sharing Circles. Lots of discussion, laughter, sometimes tears. Reconciliation begins with listening and truly caring for one another.
